

5TH WORLD CONGRESS ON JUSTICE WITH CHILDREN

“ADVANCING CHILD-CENTRED JUSTICE:
Preventing And Responding to Violence Affecting Children In Child Justice Systems”

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

PROF. JENNIFER DAVIDSON

Executive Director, Institute for Inspiring Children’s Futures, University of Strathclyde

Professor Jennifer Davidson is the Executive Director of Inspiring Children’s Futures, an Institute and Doctoral Research Centre at the University of Strathclyde in Scotland, working to reveal and resolve the structural barriers to children in adversity reaching their potential. Jennifer is a passionate advocate driving meaningful and sustainable change with and for children, supporting the implementation of effective government policy to reach children’s day-to-day lives. She draws on children’s human rights and the delivery of the UN Sustainable Development Goals, working closely with governments and international agencies. Jennifer’s leadership of international children’s human rights projects has driven change for children over many years, most recently as lead of the Working Group on SDG 16 Justice for Children, a partner of the Justice Action Coalition. Previously, she led a series of international systems-change projects to support the delivery of the UN Guidelines for the Alternative Care of Children.
