CHILD AND YOUTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE

LILAS KABI

Member of the Justice With Children Child and Youth Advisory Committee 2025

I am a Chemical Engineering student with a passion for innovation and sustainability. Through my involvement in conferences—both as a participant and organizer—I have developed strong communication and leadership skills. Writing and public speaking have always been key interests of mine, allowing me to share ideas and inspire others. My journey began in 2019 as a member of child protection and advocacy committees with the Palestinian Vision organisation and the Ministry of Social Development. Since then, I have had the honor of representing Palestine at international and global forums, advocating for the rights and well-being of children. Beyond academics, I am deeply committed to advocating for human protection, believing in the power of awareness and action to support vulnerable communities. I aim to combine my technical knowledge with my leadership abilities to make a meaningful impact in both engineering and society.
