

5TH WORLD CONGRESS ON JUSTICE WITH CHILDREN

“ADVANCING CHILD-CENTRED JUSTICE:
Preventing And Responding to Violence Affecting Children In Child Justice Systems”

CHILD AND YOUTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE

ASEEL IBRAHIM

Member and Communications Focal Point of the Justice With Children Child and Youth Advisory Committee 2025

Aseel is a 23-year-old researcher, youth advisor, and an inclusive media creator from Jordan. Volunteering with multiple INGOs including Plan International, UN Women, TDH, and Women Deliver. She is currently pursuing a Master's in Audiovisual Translation and accessibility studies, where she explores the intersection of translation and activism, and promotes scholarly advocacy through overcoming linguistic inequalities. Beyond her academic pursuits, her advocacy focuses on transformative education, SRHR, and empowerment of refugees and children affected by conflict.

Driven by a passion for empowering GYW in decision-making spaces and bridging local contexts with global processes, Aseel is an active member of the She Leads project. She leverages her background in social entrepreneurship and coordinating projects by implementing three youth led initiatives to contribute to local and global efforts that emphasize the importance of girls' inclusion in United Nations processes and promoting girls' and young women's rights. In recognition of her community work, she represented Plan International at the UN Summit of the Future and is a member of the NGO CSW/NY Global Youth Fellows 2024/2025 cohort. Her extensive experience allows her to merge practical expertise with her academic pursuits, driving meaningful change and fostering a more just and inclusive future.

