

The World Congress on Justice With Children

15–20 November 2021

Ensuring access to justice for all children: towards non-discriminatory and inclusive child justice systems

The aim of the Congress is to gather children and adults that are specialized in different areas of justice - including policymakers, civil society representatives and child and youth advocates - to address the challenges faced by children in contact with justice systems.

Our targets

- Promote child-friendly justice systems;
- Stimulate policy makers, law makers, civil society representatives and child and youth advocates to advance children's rights;
- Engage and connect various actors and specialists in the field of child justice.

The Child and Youth Advisory Board

The Congress is shaped in collaboration with a group of ambitious child and youth representatives with knowledge and experience in child justice systems. They come from different parts of the world.

NO to Discrimination

All children and young people should have the same rights in all justice systems no matter of ethnicity, religious beliefs, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender, disability etc.

What are the main themes?

There will be workshops about systemic racism, discrimination due to gender, migration, disability etc., the online criminalization of children, the justice system in the pandemic or the voice of children in the justice system.

ALL CHILDREN MATTER

The Congress will gather representatives from all regions of the world in order to get diverse views of the problems faced by children and young people across various justice systems globally.

Willing to contribute?

If you know the problems of a specific region, you can host a session on one of the days of the Congress. You can apply until 25th of September 2021 at the following link:
